Trade prospects with USA

895. SHRI JAGADISH JANI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a great potential for increasing trade between India and the USA; and

(b) if so, what steps have been taken by both the countries in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI P. SHIV SHANKER): (a) Although the USA is a large trading partner of India, considering the size of its global trade and our share in it, there exists a potential for further growth.

(b) Export promotion programmes are being taken by both countries to expand trade. On India's part these programmes include participation in specialised exhibitions in USA, organisation of such events as buyer-sellers meets and department store promotion and commercial publicity in addition to sponsoring industrial delegations and sales-cum-study teams. US Government is also undertaking trade promotion programmes in India including organisation of exhibitions, catalogue shows, and visits of trade missions. Problems relating to access are also discussed periodically in bilateral meetings.

Non-fulfilment of export obligations by silk exporters

896. SHRI BIR BHADRA PRATAP SINGH: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that the exporters of silk who have not fulfilled their export obligations under the duty free advance licensing schemes have not been penalized; and

(b) if so, what are the names and addresses of such defaulters and what action has been taken against them in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI P. SHIV SHANKER): (a) and (b) Action for default and consequent penalisation is mandatory under part 29 of Appendix 19 of the Import-Export Policy (Volume I) 1985—1988, against those exporters who have not fulfilled their export obligations under the Duty Free Advance Licensing Scheme within the export obligation period permitted. Information in respect of names and addresses of such exporters of silk under this scheme and the action taken against them will be collected and laid on the Table of the House.

Hundred per cent export-oriented breweries

897 SHRI PRITHIBI MAJHI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) what are the names of the hundred per cent export-oriented breweries in India;

(b) whether they have failed to fulfil the export obligation stipulated in their licences;

(c) whether the Champagne India Ltd. is one of these units; and

(d) what action Government have taken against these units for non-fulfilment of export obligation?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI P. SHIV SHANKER): (a) A list of six Units approved under 100 per cent Export Oriented Unit Scheme for manufacture of various types of alcoholic beverages is appended in the annexed statement (see below).

Misuse of advance import licence facilities

898. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI:
SHRI BIR BHADRA PRATAP SINGH:
SHRI GULAM MOHI-UD-DIN SHAWL:

Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Enforcement Wing of the Chief Controller of Exports and Imports has detected large scale misuse of advance import licence facilities;

(b) if so, whether the misuse of import licence by the two Gujarat based companies were detected in the month of January, 1986;

(c) if so, what action has been taken against the companies; and

(d) what steps are being taken to check the misuse of import licences on a large scale?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI P. SHIV SHANKER): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir.

(c) The applications for import licence and allotment of canalised items have been placed under abeyance in respect of M/s. L. D. Textiles Industries, Ankleshwar. The operation of import licences already issued has been suspended and a show cause notice for cancellation of the same has been issued. The licensing authority has been advised to recover Customs duty and enforce bank guarantee conditions. A combined show cause notice for debarment and fiscal penalty is also being issued besides referring the matter to C.B.I. for investigation.

In case of M/s. Universal Dyestuffs Industries Ltd., Baroda, a show cause notice under the Act is being issued and the matter referred to C.B.I. for
